CIVIL ACTION

Case No. 19-3281

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF STATE OF CALIFORNIA’S MOTION FOR ORDER
AUTHORIZING DISBURSEMENT OF THE CONSUMER FUND TO LATE CLAIMANTS

On October 11, 2022, the Court granted approval of Plaintiff State of California’s (“California”) Motion for Order Authorizing Distribution of the Consumer Fund and Permitting Additional Late Claims, approving, inter alia, the proposed disbursement of the Consumer Fund first through direct cash payments to pay claims from Eligible Consumers that have been vetted for legitimacy by the Claims Administrator, accepting late claims received within 90 days of the Order, and thereafter through cy pres distribution of any portion that remains unclaimed to be administered by the Cy Pres Administrator. (ECF Nos. 37 and 38.) On January 30, 2026, California filed the instant Motion for Order Authorizing Disbursement of the Consumer Fund to Late Claimants (“Motion”), accompanied by the Declaration of Eric J. Miller with exhibits (“Miller Declaration”).

Having considered the Motion, the Miller Declaration, and the pleadings and other papers on file in this action, and finding good cause appearing, the Court hereby GRANTS the Motion as follows:

1. The administrative determinations and recommendations of Claims Administrator A.B. Data, Ltd. (“AB Data”), concerning the 249 Late Claims received in this action through January 9, 2023, are hereby APPROVED.

2. The disbursement plan recommended by AB Data in Paragraphs 17, 19, and 20 of the Miller Declaration is APPROVED. The Court authorizes AB Data to distribute from the California Teva Settlement Fund (“Distribution Account”) a total direct cash payment of $397,660.23 to the 174 late claimants whose Late Claims have been approved by AB Data and who are listed in the Late Eligible Consumer Claims Summary attached as Exhibit D to the Miller Declaration.

IT SO ORDERED.
